

June 14, 2020

Series - The Gospel and Race

Text - Genesis 1:27; 3:9; 4:9

Title - Where is Your Brother?

Outline

- 1) Is Race a Gospel Issue? - Genesis 1:27
- 2) Where Are You? - Genesis 3:9
- 3) Where is Your Brother? - Genesis 4:9

Questions

- 1) Icebreaker - On a scale of 1-10 (1 being "Let's not go there!" and 10 being "It's about time!"), how have you felt about Antioch focusing on this topic? Why?
- 2) Read Genesis 1:26-28. Is race a gospel issue? Why begin with God creating man in his image?
 - Why are we afraid to confess our racism?
 - What are we afraid of losing by affirming that black lives matter?
- 3) Read Genesis 3:8-10. Where are you? Where did God convict you during the preaching of his word?
 - When was a time that God revealed one of your walls of ignorance?
 - How did he change you?
- 4) Read Genesis 4:8-10. Where is your brother? Where are you listening to voices different from your own?
 - How is God calling you to not destroy your weaker brother (or sister)?
- 5) Application - Take time to pray together that God would bring something new and glorious out of this chaos.

Sermon audio, liturgy, and livestream link are available at

<https://www.antiochpeople.org/allsermons/2020/06/14-where-is-your-brother-bradley-bel-l-genesi-1-27-3-9-4-9>

Next Sunday's sermon passage - Amos 5